DHYEYA IAS AN INTRODUCTION

Dhyeya IAS, one and a half decades old institution, was founded by Mr. Vinay Singh and Mr. Q. H. Khan. Ever since its emergence it has an unparalleled track record of success. Today, it stands tall among the reputed institutes providing coaching for Civil Services Examination (CSE). The institute has been very successful in making potential aspirants realize their dreams which is evident from the success stories of the previous years.

Quite a large number of students who desire of building a career for themselves are absolutely ill equipped for the fairly tough competitive tests they have to appear in. Several others, who have a brilliant academic record, do not know that competitive exams are vastly different from academic examination and call for a systematic and scientifically planned guidance by a team of experts. Here one single move may invariably put one ahead of many others who lag behind. Dhyeya IAS is manned by qualified & experienced faculty besides especially designed study material that helps the students in achieving the desired goal.

Civil Services Exam requires knowledge base of specified subjects. Classes at Dhyeya IAS are different from classes conducted in schools and colleges with respect to their orientation and approach. Classroom guidance at Dhyeya IAS is about improving the individual's capacity to focus, learn and innovate as we are comfortably aware of the fact that you can't teach a person anything, you can only help him find it within himself.

I want to specially mention the guidance given by Vinay Sir, Khan Sir, Javed Sir, Amit Sir, Vijay Ved Sir, Jay Sir and other teachers and staff of Dhyeya IAS. It was the commitment and right strategy provided by the teachers that helped me to achieve this grand success in the first attempt itself.*

Dhyeya IAS inculcates human values and professional ethics in the students, which help them make decisions that are good not only for them, but also for the society, for the nation, and for the world as a whole. To fulfil its mission in new and powerful ways, each student is motivated to strive towards achieving excellence in every endeavor. It is done by making continuous improvements in curricula and pedagogical tools.

The rigorous syllabi not only instil in them, a passion for knowledge but also attempts to teach them how to apply that knowledge in real-life situations. The programmes lay emphasis on well-rounded personality development of the students and also inculcate the values of honesty and integrity in them.

Cut-off depends on the comparative performance of candidates appearing in the examination each year. In the year 2014, the cut-off was based on combined marks of Paper I and II, but from 2015, CSAT was made qualifying with 33% marks. Now, cut-off is based only on the basis of Paper I.

STAGE I : PRELIMS

Preliminary examination is the first and very important stage of the three stages of the Civil Services Examination.

STRUCTURE OF PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION

The Preliminary stage consists of two papers : General Studies Paper I and General Studies Paper II.

General Studies Paper I consists of 100 questions of 2 marks each which is to be answered in 2 hours.

General Studies paper II consists of 80 questions of 2.5 marks each which is to be answered in 2 hours.

For each question, for which a wrong answer is given, one-third of the marks assigned to that question are deducted as penalty. If a candidate gives more than one answer it is treated as wrong answer. If a question is left blank, there is no penalty for that question.

The guidance and cooperation provided by Vinay Singh Sir is appreciable in preparation of General Studies. His personal suggestions regarding development of an understanding of the subject and preparing the answer format proved very helpful for me. I am obliged for this cooperation of Dhyeya IAS.

STRATEGY FOR PRELIMS

- UPSC requires a generalist for serving the highest echelons of administration in India. A generalist is someone who knows something about everything, but not everything about something (called scientists or researchers). Your approach while reading should be somewhat like a generalist.
- For example, if you are reading about floods, you should focus on understanding their causes; implications (+ve and -ve); impact on human property and life ; their mitigation and management. You need not read scientific literature about floods, river flows, meandering etc. At most, read what they are and how are they related to an earthquake.
- Most of the candidates think of working hard only, but it is combination of hard plus smart work that would pay in this examination.
- All the aspirants do not belong to the same academic, economic and social background so their strategy also differs but for the final success in this examination, the candidates have to undergo the same process and pattern of the examination. So, even if the strategy will be different the paradigm must be kept high.
- One can clear the Civil Services Prelims in one shot. Understanding concepts should be the first priority because mugging up neither helps in Prelims nor in Mains. So focus on basic understanding; and wider coverage rather than detailed studies and intensive coverage.

FOR EFFICIENT AND EFFECTIVE STUDY:

- Read standard book from Cover to Cover.
- Don't make notes in the first reading itself.
- Keep your booklist short and simple. Better to read one book for each topic thoroughly, than flip through multiple sources.
- Read carefully and between the lines since Prelims questions can be tricky.
- Preliminary Exam is all about 'identifying' the correct answer among the 4 options given. It's all about elimination of the wrong options and identifying the correct one. Focus should be more on understanding the concepts.

PRELIMS QUESTION TREND ANALYSIS

Category	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020
Indian History & Indian National Movement	19	16	16	12	19	17	18
Indian Polity & Governance	10	13	6	23	13	15	16
India & World Geography	20	18	3	7	9	14	10
Ecology, Environment & Biodiversity	20	12	16	12	11	11	17
Indian Economy and Social Development	11	16	15	8	15	14	14
General Science	12	9	7	8	12	7	10
Current Affairs of National & International importance	08	16	37	30	21	22	15
Total	100	100	100	100	100	100	100

It is clear from the above table that there is a significant difference in the number of questions that is being asked from different sections each year. For example, about 16-18 questions were asked in the Geography from year 2011 to 2015 whereas in 2016, only 3 questions were asked. Same as in the Current Affairs section only 5-6 questions were asked in year 2011-12 whereas in 2016, 37 questions were asked. It is completely clear that under sectional study, we cannot ignore any of the sections but there is a need to give sufficient emphasis on all the sections.

STAGE II : MAIN EXAMINATION

This is the second and most important phase of the Civil Service Examination in which the candidates are admitted after passing the Preliminary examination. About 15k-16k candidates are filtered for writing the main examination from the total set appearing in preliminary exam. The questions being asked in the main examination are subjective in nature. The subjects covered in main examination consist of four GS papers, one paper on Essay writing, two papers on optional subject chosen and two are compulsory language papers (one is English language and other one is of the Indian language mentioned in 8th schedule of the Constitution). In the main examination a descriptive answer is expected in organized manner. The candidates will be evaluated not only for their writing and analytical ability but also for the understanding of the various issues that hold importance from examination point of view, also playing an important role in the administrative system. The nature of the questions will be such that one can evaluate the general awareness of the candidates on various issues and subjects.

STRATEGY FOR MAINS

Formulated strategies along with proper time management followed with commitment are the only way to prepare for Civil Services Examination.

Know the syllabus thoroughly: Thorough knowledge of the syllabus is the first requirement before you start your preparation. It is only the syllabus which spells out the specific details of the areas of subject from which question can be asked in Civil Services Exam. Periodic reference to the syllabus would avoid wastage of time and effort by skipping topics which are not covered in the syllabus. It makes you aware of what precisely has to be studied. This is important because time at your disposal is limited. It can help you to plan your study in a better way by marking areas of study where you are comfortable and where you have problems.

There is no single formula for success - Evolve your own strategy: It is said that man is the best master of himself. No one can understand you better than you yourself. You can take suggestions to apply for plan development but these should not bind you. Rely on your own method of study believing that this is the only right method. For example, if you like to study silently, do accordingly. If you prefer a particular spot for your study, it is better to sit there. Also, you may develop habit of reading fast. The best thing one can do is to have an access to all the relevant facts, study them and plan one's own strategy for preparing for the IAS exam. As each one of us differ in strengths and weaknesses, likes and dislikes so does the strategy for this exam.

Plan your study subject wise: Planning plays a crucial role. It has been rightly said, "If you have no plan then, you are planning to fail." A systematic and planned approach always helps. Planning in terms of preparation means to frame around the three pillars of success: conceptual clarity, contextual familiarity and application expertise. It requires continuous effort.

A good planning involves consulting your seniors, dividing your entire time into periods of one month each and plan to complete a block of lessons by the end of each period, setting study goals for each day, each week and each month. Remember, your plan should not be too detailed or too sketchy but it should be a balanced one. Each subject must be given proper and regular time. Instead of preparing one subject at the cost of other subjects and all the three stages i.e. Prelims, Mains and Interview must be given proper consideration which will also help in breaking monotony. Prepare good notes during self study. If you want to make the concept more clear, then, while preparing notes of lectures, leave some space and just after the lecture fill up the space with clarifications.

Study the trend of previous year question papers: Study the trend from previous year question papers and draw marks' distribution of each subject to find out which topics are most and which are least important. Give priority to important topics and try to put them in early stage of your preparation to avoid any possibility of these being left. Review your plan periodically to find out if there are any lapses and how they can be covered up.

Selection of books: Which books you select and read play a crucial role. Great care is needed while choosing books. The more number of books you read, the more confused you may become and waste a lot of your time. Instead of going through a lot of books, try to read only one quality book for each topic which makes the basic concepts clear to you. Procure the books you need well in advance to avoid the last minute hassle.

Selective and Reflective Study: Your study should be quality based not quantity based. You should not lay emphasis on just reading more and more books, magazines and journals but reflect on your subject and try to master it. You should develop your rational faculty to assimilate relevant information and analyze problems dispassionately. Your reading must be purposeful. Distinguish between the important and the irrelevant reading material. You must keep in mind what is useful from the examination point of view.

IMPORTANT TIPS FOR ANSWER WRITING

START NOW The first rule to remember is that you should not wait till you finish the whole UPSC syllabus to embark on an answer writing spree. You should start it simultaneously while covering the syllabus. The more you practice, the better you will get at it. Success in the UPSC exam is not determined by how much you know, but by what and how you write in the answer booklet.

QUALITY & QUANTITY If you think just by filling up the prescribed word count, you can fool the examiner, think again. The UPSC assesses your knowledge and ability to express that knowledge in the most effective manner. Not only you should take care of the word limit but you should also ensure to write what is asked in the question. Understanding the exact requirement of the question comes only with practicing scores of previous years' question papers.

EVALUATE It is not enough to merely write out answers and prepare for the IAS exam. You should also get your answers evaluated by teachers, seniors or mentors. Only this way you can analyse your shortcomings and correct yourself.

HOLISTIC ANSWERS When you are practicing answer-writing, make sure you write holistic answers. Your answers should be clear, neat, have examples and relevant concepts, crisp (not vague and jumbled) and creative. Dynamic questions warrant dynamic answers. So, read newspapers regularly to improve your vocabulary and writing style. The prerequisite to writing well is to inculcate a habit of reading well.

GS PAPERS VERSUS OPTIONALs It is better to avoid jargon in the GS papers since your answers should be multifaceted and broad. Here, you must give a generalist approach in your answers. However, in the optional subject papers, you can afford to go a little deep and include technical terms. This is because the examiner, in this case, is also a specialist. So, when you practice writing answers, keep in mind the difference between writing answers for GS and optional papers, and prepare accordingly for each.

STAGE III : PERSONALITY TEST (INTERVIEW)

The candidate will be interviewed by a Board which will have before it, the record of his career. He/she will be asked questions on matters of general interest. The object of the interview is to assess the personal suitability of the candidate for a career in public service by a Board of competent and unbiased observers. The test is intended to judge the mental calibre of a candidate. In broad terms, this is really an assessment of not only his intellectual qualities but also social traits and his interest in current affairs. Some of the qualities, to be judged are mental alertness, critical powers of assimilation, clear and logical exposition, balance of judgement, variety and depth of interest, ability for social cohesion and leadership, intellectual and moral integrity.

The technique of the interview is not that of a strict cross-examination but of a natural, though directed and purposive conversation which is intended to reveal the mental qualities of the candidate.

The interview test is not intended to be a test either of the specialized or general knowledge of the candidates which have been already tested through their written papers. Candidates are expected to have taken an intelligent interest not only in their special subjects of academic study but also in the events which are happening around them both within and outside their own state or country as well as in modern currents of thought and in new discoveries which should rouse the curiosity of well educated youth.

Interview has a great scoring potential. Though the process is just of 25 to 30 minutes but marks scored have a wide range: 130 to 225. It is the last chance to maximize final score. Even if score in the Written Examinations is near the cut-off, one can score very high and be in the selection list.

According to UPSC Report 2015, it has been observed that in the last decade, 90 per cent of the candidates who were invited for the personality test secured less than 55 percent of the total prescribed marks.

However, to be assured of a Class-1 service, one has to generally obtain about 60 per cent marks. It has been noticed that only those, securing 66 per cent and above are sure of getting a service of their own choice. The figures clearly reveal that the marks in the personality test plays a determining role in final selection of the candidate.

DHYEYA IAS - STRATEGY OF CLASSROOM PROGRAMME

Since its establishment in the year 2003, Dhyeya IAS has been a pioneer amongst institutions. More specifically from the very beginning, it has been a dedicated institution for General Studies.

OUR CLASSROOM PROGRAMME

According to the demand of the civil services examination Dhyeya IAS developed a proper strategy. Dhyeya IAS classroom programme operates at three levels.

FOUNDATION + ADVANCE

This is an year long program of about 850-900 hours. Keeping a minute observation of the whole curriculum (Syllabus) under this level, there are detailed and analytical lectures on all the sections of the given syllabus and more emphasis is given on the development of conceptual understanding of aspirants. As all students at this stage are completely new and they have little understanding of strategy and content, the responsibility of the institute becomes crucial, that it does justice to the student's requirements. It is our priority to develop the aspirant's interdisciplinary approach at this level and also the development of an exam-oriented approach within them. Once the above approach develops within the candidate, he/she becomes self-reliant and then he/she needs only value addition.

PRELIMS SPECIAL CLASSES

(Crash Course including Budget, Economic Survey & Current Affairs)

Dhyeya IAS organizes this classroom program for those students of Dhyeya IAS whose 1st level classroom program has been completed and who are going to appear in Preliminary Examination. At this level, first of all, Dhyeya IAS holds 25-30 hours special classes on Budget and Economic Survey. Then, classes on how to deal with the questions related to current affairs in Preliminary examination are held, in order to maximize the study benefits in minimum time frame. Finally, we organise PT Crash Course of 150-160 hours before the preliminary exam. Under this programme, we revise and update the dynamic section of the prelims syllabus as well as more emphasis on the complex traditional topics like Art and Culture, Environment & Ecology and Science & Technology. This classroom programme has been extremely beneficial for many years. Candidates have a direct benefit in atleast 25-30 questions in the Preliminary Examination.

MAINS SPECIAL CLASSES

This is the most important classroom programme because it is for those students who have full probability of qualifying the preliminary exam. This program is conducted immediately after the preliminary exam. Duration of this program is 3-3½ months. This initiative of Dhyeya IAS is to make such honest efforts so that the candidates can get a place in the final merit-list. The purpose of this classroom program is to cover whole mains syllabus from exam point of view in just 300 hours. These are highly quality oriented classes.

EXPLAIN:

Key to succeed in the UPSC civil services exam is to have strong basics and absolute conceptual clarity. Our faculty will 'EXPLAIN' the most complex concepts in a lucid way so that any fresher can understand and use these concepts while solving questions of Prelims and Mains.

QUEST:

Every class lecture is accompanied by a small test-which we call as QUEST – that seeks to test your knowledge and skills both. These tests will help bring discipline and seriousness in your exam preparation.

UNDERSTAND:

Post-Quest, discussions are conducted that further helps you to understand how the concepts that you have learned as part of the 'EXPLAIN' component needs to be applied and remembered from exam point of view. The faculty will extensively use previous year questions and their own set of questions to illustrate how you must align exam preparation to prepare smartly without stress. This is 'UNDERSTAND', the U-component of EQUIP.

INTERACT:

Lectures with interactive discussions enhance the quality of learning and also helps in inculcation of more ideas as every student could contribute. This 'INTERACTION' component will be facilitated at the end of each lecture where you can clear your doubts and contribute your own ideas too.

PERFORM:

Weekly Prelims tests, fortnightly Mains tests and comprehensive Prelims & Mains test upon completion of every subject are conducted for you to finally 'PERFORM', enabling you to be at your competitive best to ace the IAS examination. These tests will help you revise and test knowledge and skills that you have acquired through classes and self-study.

EMOTIONAL QUOTIENT:

Finally EQ (EQuip) also matters. Without a strong Emotional Quotient, you cannot sustain the long audacious journey of civil service preparation. Moreover you cannot perform well in interview round of civil service examination. Keeping this in mind, our mentorship program offers you the much needed emotional support in addition to academic support.

DISTANCE EDUCATION LEARNING

Distance Education Learning, primarily caters to the need of those who are unable to come to metros for economic or family reasons but have ardent desire to become a civil servant. Simultaneously, it also suits the need of working professionals, who are unable to join regular classes due to increase in work load or places of their posting. The principal characteristic of our distance learning is that the student need not be present in real time classrooms to learn. It aims to create and provide access to learning when the source of information and the learners are separated by time and distance. The distance learning material is comprehensive, concise and exam-oriented in nature. Its aim is to make available almost all the relevant material on a subject at one place. In other words, you will get all points, which are otherwise to be taken from 6 -10 books available in the market/library. That means, DSDL study material is undoubtedly the most comprehensive and that will definitely give you an added advantage in your Preliminary as well as Mains Examination. These materials are not available in any book store or library. These materials have been prepared exclusively for the use of our students. We believe in delivering quality with commitment towards making the class notes indispensable for any student preparing for Civil Services Examination.

- Are individual marks secured in various papers or aggregate marks across all papers considered for merit?

Total marks are considered.

- No. of Candidates who qualify Mains to appear in the Interview: 2-2½ times the Nos. of vacancies in the CSE. Thus one can say that CSE is one of the toughest competitive examinations.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- Which stream/subject should I choose for graduation to clear UPSC exam?

Most of the questions in the general studies paper in Prelims and Mains are related to Humanities background. But it is neither necessary nor advisable to take Humanities as your graduation stream just to clear UPSC exam. Graduation should be based on your interest – it can be humanities, science, engineering, literature or management. For graduation, select any stream you like to study for 3-4 years. You are free to choose any optional subject for UPSC Mains and it may not be the one you studied for graduation.

- Will there be minimum qualifying marks for UPSC Mains Compulsory Papers?

The Commission has the discretion to fix qualifying marks in any or all the subjects of the examination. Since 2015, the minimum marks were 25% for Indian language and English language. For GS1, GS2, GS3 and GS4 the minimum marks expected are 10%.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- Will UPSC deduct marks for bad handwriting?
If a candidate's handwriting is not easily legible, a deduction will be made on this account from the total marks otherwise accruing to him.
- Will there be minimum qualifying marks for UPSC Interview?
The interview will carry 275 marks (with no minimum qualifying marks).
- Can candidates use calculators in UPSC Civil Services Exam?
Not for UPSC Civil Services Preliminary Exam. But candidates will be allowed to use the Scientific (Non-Programmable type) Calculators at the subjective type examination of UPSC, ie Mains Exam. Programmable type calculators will not however be allowed and the use of such calculators shall tantamount to resorting to unfair means by the candidates. Loaning or interchanging of calculators in the Examination Hall is not permitted. It is also important to note that candidates are not permitted to use calculators for answering objective type papers (Test Booklets). They should not, therefore, bring the same inside the Examination Hall.
- Is coaching important?
This is one of the most frequently asked questions. UPSC has been constantly changing its pattern over the years to make the civil services exam preparation accessible and possible to students from every set of background. Its Endeavour is to neutralize the effect of coaching so that all candidates come on a equal platform. However, the fact remains – most of the candidates who succeed have taken coaching at some point of their preparation. This is chiefly due to:
  - ◆ The vast syllabus, especially in general studies which the candidates find very difficult to do on their own in a shortest possible period. Moreover, the students are flooded with so many books that they get confused about consulting which ones. Class notes and Material provide a solution to this.
  - ◆ The candidates, many times in their quest for acquiring knowledge, lose track of time. They overdo the studies in some subjects at the cost of others. Coaching institutes cover the syllabus within the time period and thus are sought after.However, the need for coaching could be removed wholly if the candidates could get the right study material and the right guidance for the examination.
A word of caution also needs to be included here. If a candidate has made his mind to enroll himself in any coaching, he must go for the best reputed ones. There are many coaching institutes which advertise very attractively, boasting on claims for producing toppers, which is many times false. The candidates who get attracted eventually land up in these institutes which take a toll on their valuable time, money and energy. The candidates must personally make queries about the coaching institutes, asking the students who were previously enrolled and then only take right decision.
- Should we prepare our own Notes?
Nothing could be better than this. However, the problem comes when one considers the wide syllabus, which is too vast if we include two optional papers and the general studies which in turn comprises of so many subjects.
One can decide to pair his own notes in those areas in which one is weak, or there are many sources to consult, or on those topics which are very important from the examination point of view. Otherwise, it will be a Herculean task to prepare notes on individual topics.
But those candidates who have decided to appear in civil services exam during their graduation years may go for this as they have ample time to contribute.
- How many hours of study are sufficient?
The answer is as many hours as you can study efficiently. In civil services preparation, there is never a time when one feels that there is nothing more to study. So, what exactly matters is the quality of studying rather than quantity of reading. First the difference between 'studying' and 'reading' should be understood. Reading means mere verbalisation of the written texts. What lacks here is understanding. When understanding adds to 'Reading' – it becomes 'studying'. So the issue how many hours you can sit and read the text with understanding also connotes to analysis, deep processing of information, inter-relating with your past knowledge base and making a view on the topic. Reading on the other hand is merely a passive activity where involvement of the reader is the least.
We can thus conclude that studying for 8 hours is many times more fruitful than reading for 16 hours. That is to say 'Quality' is more important than the 'Quantity' invested.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- Can an average student also compete with the rest?

An average student has an added advantage as he knows his limitations. He knows he does not have any time to waste. The tortoise rabbit story is not obsolete yet.

In fact, most of the students who succeeded in the Civil Service were very ordinary students in their academics. But they knew, how to add 'extra' into 'ordinary' to become 'extra-ordinary'. That extra is provided by their firm determination, an honest self-assessment and foolproof planning followed by strict implementation. In short, the hard work put in by them ultimately lands them at the summit of success.

- How does a good bio-data matter?

Bio-data matters during the interview and personality test (i.e. during the third phase). Personality test is based wholly or mostly on the basis of bio-data and the questions are framed on information provided by you. In fact, then personality is judged by the interview board on the parameters of suitability of candidates for the job. However, a bad bio-data may leave some unfavourable impression on the members of the board and thus, a kind of judgment is formed by them consciously or unconsciously.

At the same time the members of the board are very experienced and they give full opportunity to candidates to thwart any pre-notions formed by the bio-data. So, the candidates by their performance in the interview have full opportunity to score high in the Interview.

But, the idea is that those candidates who are in their early academic years should try and see that their biodata is without any shortcomings.

- Could the civil services questions be answered in the regional languages?

Yes, aspirants can write answers in any language provided in the eighth schedule of the Constitution of India.

- Preparation for Preliminary and Mains – Separate or Integrated?

Can knowledge be compartmentalized? No. In fact it is an integrated whole which gives a comprehensive understanding. Same holds true for the preparation. The subject should be understood in its entirety. Only then the requirement for the Preliminary and Mains could be fulfilled through particular emphasis on the orientation. The orientation for Prelims is towards a mix of factual information and understanding with a bias towards the former.

- When should one take his first attempt irrespective of the fact how many attempts the candidate has?

Many candidates appear in their first attempt taking it to be a learning experience. This is the biggest mistake they commit. UPSC attempts are very precious ones. Many candidates regret wasting their first attempt and wish if they had one they would have cracked the exam. The candidates must be very serious before appearing in the preliminary exam. They must complete the whole syllabus in their optional as well as general studies. They must check their performance by taking mock tests at home and work out the weak areas. The greatest benefit of the whole exercise is that there is a high probability that they get through the preliminary exam. If unfortunately, they could not, at least they came to know their grey and weak areas on which they need to concentrate. This enlightenment benefits them immensely in their next attempt. Those who waste their first attempt do not come to know about their shortcomings and in this situation may even waste their other attempts.

- How to select the optionals?

This has been answered earlier too. The basic criteria are in same sequence of importance.

- ◆ Interest.
- ◆ Availability of study material and guidance.
- ◆ Gap between the optionals during the Mains exam.
- ◆ Scoring optionals – trend prevailing.

- Speaking English during an Interview – How important is it?

UPSC holds personality tests and interviews in English, Hindi and all other languages in the 8th schedule – i.e. 22 languages, provided the candidates write all the papers (optional and general studies) in the same language. Also, UPSC through the Civil Services exam tries to dig out the best brains in the country, who could contribute in development and progress of the nation. It is thus a wrong notion to hold that the UPSC is language-biased. However, the candidates themselves need to learn English for their own sake as during their long career in civil services they have to come across so many occasions where they will have to communicate with various kinds of organisations, institutions, seniors and people and during such a situation, language should not be a limitation.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- When I see people around me who have not got selected in the prestigious services, then I lose self- confidence. What should I do in this situation?

Generally, we see most of the people around us who are not selected. Seeing them, your self-confidence should not be reduced because everyone has a different strategy. We should always remember that most of the candidates who are finally selected are also from us.
- Failure can be for several reasons:
  - ◆ Time is limited in the examination hall, despite being aware of the questions, one is not able to express correctly because one has not practiced properly.
  - ◆ Pressure management just before the examination is not done properly, so that the answer to the known question with the correct information goes wrong too.
  - ◆ Lack of Right Guidance on strategy.
  - ◆ No assessment of ability of an aspirant, regarding time management, use of fact and writing style.
- Solution
  - ◆ Keep a positive view, meet successful people, ignore negative thought.
  - ◆ Do not loose your self-confidence, you have immense potential, use it to achieve your goal honestly.
  - ◆ Identify your short-comings and try to remove them. Go ahead with determination by choosing your own way.
- Family pressure is high on girls due to which there is no consideration in studies, what to do for it.
  - ◆ Stay focused on your goal, concentrate with full passion and energy to achieve your goals.
  - ◆ Take your parents and family in confidence which will in turn help you achieve your goal.
  - ◆ If success is achieved in the 1st stage, the trust of the parents and family increases and therefore work hard to achieve the goal in first go itself.
- Which newspapers should be read?

One or two standard newspapers are enough. (The Hindu / Indian Express / Business Standard or Economic Times).
- How to read a newspaper?

Combine the current developments with issues and topics, to know the relevancy of the events. As most of the questions are based on contemporary issues.
Note the key facts of the events, which will be highly beneficial in preparation.
Note the events in a register according to GS Paper wise. Under the headings of National, International Economy and Ecology and Environment.
Note the key points of important editorial articles that are essential for the main examination. (specially in Essay)
- I have got only one year time duration for preparation. Can I become an IAS in such a short period of time?

Well, for the preparation of the IAS Exam, one or two years of intensive study is required because the syllabus is very wide and it's also necessary to have an understanding and hold on the subject. But with the right strategy, better guidance and perseverance it can be done in one year also.
Aspirant's family background, academic ability and his basic understanding, play a very decisive role. If everything is positive and favourable then success can be achieved even in one year by hard work.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- How to read NCERT books?

- How helpful is the Test Series in preparation?

- ◆ Extremely helpful, because we get atmosphere resembling the examination hall and performing well strengthens our mental abilities.
- ◆ Through Test Series we evaluate our self-preparation because we cover whole syllabus in accordance with test series schedule that will benefit us in the exam. Test Series also motivate us to perform well under pressure.

- If I am working then how can I prepare for the UPSC exam?

Nature of the job will matter, you will have to adjust your routine, as time management also becomes important as quality of study is more important than the quantity.

- ◆ Target should be set weekly, so that you do not feel bored. Confidence will also increase on completion of weekly target.
- ◆ Handling pressure needs a smart strategy, revise whatever you read, read selectively, and also work on writing skills.

Message from our board members on civil service day

Civil Service is a vital economic asset to the nation as it helps organize the best way to deliver modern public services on which business, citizens, and individuals depend. Civil Service Day is a time for appreciation, evaluation as well as introspection because the problems of 21st century are of complex nature which require proactive participation from bureaucracy. I wish good luck and better opportunities for all Civil Servants on this day.

Mr. N.C. SAXENA
Ex. Secretary, Govt of India

Civil Service Day reminds us of the importance of public service and the people who dedicate themselves every day to the success of our nation. The day recognizes that democracy and successful governance are built on the foundation of a competent Civil Service. This day promotes the role, professionalism and visibility of Civil Service. I pay respect to those amazing officers who inspire us every single day.

MR. SHASHANK
Ex. Foreign Secretary

"Civil Servants play a vital role in fulfilling the vision of 1.35 billion citizens of our nation. They have the responsibility to aid and advise the government in policy making and they help in policy execution as well. On this Civil Service Day, the Civil Servants should realize the importance of their job and imbibe the tenets of good governance like transparency, accountability & impartiality."

MR. S. Y. QURAISHI
Ex. Chief Election Commissioner

Challenges to good governance in India are immense and diverse. Quality institutions managed by competent civil servants alone can help us meet these challenges. Though a lot still remains to be done, the achievements of the civil services are remarkable as evident with India's progress compared to the second wave democracies of the world. Civil Service Day is an occasion to look back, assess its successes and shortcomings, draw a road map to specialize in governance and build capacity of the services to ably face the future challenges. Civil services in India, in spite of challenges, have the strength and stamina to take the country forward making it a formidable world power and make us proud.

MR. NOOR MOHAMMED
Ex. Secretary, Govt of India

Civil Service Day offers a valuable opportunity to reflect upon the performance of civil services in the country vis-a-vis the role entrusted to them in the vast area of governance. With the multifold expansion of education and the rising awareness of its rights, the expectations of the citizenry from the public authorities have gone up tremendously. The challenges posed by widespread poverty, unemployment and increasing inequalities of income and wealth are daunting. The civil servants, therefore, need to shape themselves so as to acquit themselves well in facing this challenging environment, as they have done in the past. In doing so, every civil servant must on this day, reiterate commitment to uphold the basic foundational values of public administration viz. honesty, integrity, impartiality and above all, a sense of trusteeship.

MR. MANJEET SINGH
Ex. Secretary Home &
Ex. Secretary Finance

"Civil Service is the most prestigious profession in this country. It is heartening to see that the youths also understand its importance. Civil Service exam is one of the toughest in the world. As a result, Indian bureaucrats are renowned for their talent. However, the efficacy of bureaucracy is less in India, due to various internal & external factors. This has affected its performance in few areas. On this Civil Service Day, the government must devise ways to improve the efficacy of civil services in India."

MR. VIBHUTI NARAIN RAI
Retd. IPS, Ex. DGP (U.P.)

The quality of a government is critically dependent on the quality of its public institutions. And the quality of public institutions is largely determined by the quality of civil servants and others who manage such institutions. My mantra for success as a civil servant is: "Deliver high quality service with full integrity and humility." Civil Service Day is an apt occasion to deliberate upon the growth and development of bureaucracy in India. Only by the contribution of an able and competent bureaucracy, India can realize the dream of becoming a developed nation.

MR. A.H.K. GHOURI
Retd. IRS, Ex. Governance Advisor -British Govt.

"Civil Service Day is an important day to retrospect and ponder whether we have done our best in discharging our duties with impartiality and transparency . Public interest shall be the guiding principle. Civil servants are 'eyes and ears ' of the Government and responsible for advice in policy formulation and execution . Civil Service is the backbone for creating a developed nation.

MR. S. K. MISHRA
Retd. IRS, Ex. Member CBEC (now CBIC)

Snippet-365 (MAINS and PRELIMS) is prepared keeping in mind Civil Services Mains and Prelims Exam. Several topics are chosen based on the type of questions asked by UPSC from nonstatic portion of syllabus in last four years. Here, it needs to be clarified that it is not merely a current affairs notes. It has certain issues covered which were not much in news but can be asked. It not only covers major important happenings in the last year but also includes important happenings beyond last one year. Also emphasis has been made to provide concise material from the static part which were in news.

Yearly Magazines

CURRENT AFFAIRS WEEKLY

The role of current affairs has tremendously increased in all the subjects of General Studies like Economy, Polity, Science & Tech, International Relations, Environment etc. Generally, the students rely on monthly magazines from the market. However these magazines are printed to cater to the needs of one day exam also, so they are more factual, which does not serve the special requirement of Civil Services Exam. Thus they are compilations of mere factual information while Civil Services Exam demands a greater understanding of concepts & their analysis. One more problem with these magazines is that the information provided by them is one month old & thus the students are unable to match the pace with newspaper. Along with this the students get flooded with a month's information all at once, resulting in tension. Thus in any way these magazines do not seem to be fruitful for the students as they do not cater to UPSC's demand of analytical approach.

The solution to the above problem lies in "PERFECT-7" which is a weekly magazine published by Dhyeya IAS based on current affairs to cater to the special demand of UPSC. Analytical compilation of current events of a week is done from different sources, viz The Hindu, Indian Express, Economic times, PIB etc in a scientific manner. This contains factual information, articles, essays & model answers in merely 40-50 pages which makes it a feasible & a viable option for the students.
